Journeys Festival International Manchester

02 – 15 October 2017

“Produced by ArtReach, Journeys Festival International invites you to explore two weeks of creative events taking place across the city of Manchester. The Festival celebrates the artistic talents of exceptional refugee and asylum seeker artists, and explores work that shares the refugee experience.

Journeys Festival International works closely with a portfolio of impressive partners, from frontline refugee and asylum seeker charities and advocacy groups, to cultural organisations and leading arts venues. Our partners have fully supported the Festival's inception in Manchester and its growth to enable it to flourish within the city's cultural scene - The JFI Team extend a big thank you to all.

The Festival presents internationally acclaimed refugee artists and musicians at the JOURNEYS Weekender (14 – 15 October), cutting edge theatre as part of Orbit 2017 and dance at Contact (10 – 12 October). The Festival offers a platform to local refugee and asylum seekers and creatives through exhibitions such as Look Up, the large-scale outdoor art gallery on buildings around the city. This year, Look Up features a unique collaboration between United for Change refugee advocacy group and Turner prize nominated artist Mark Titchner.

Join our journey as the Festival grows locally in the city, nationally in Leicester, Manchester and Portsmouth and internationally through new European partnerships, helping to give visibility to and support the integration of refugees and asylum seekers from across the globe. “

THE CONTAINER PROJECT

Longsight Library and Learning Centre, 519 Stockport Road, M12 4NE

The Container Project transforms a shipping container into an immersive project space for the Festival.

This year the container is being taken to the heart of the community in Longsight. Positioned outside the library, the space will host digital art exhibitions, provide a canvas for live graffiti painting and space for workshops.

Live Graffiti with M-One and Monk on Tour

Thurs 05 – Sat 07 October

10am – 5pm

The Container Project, Longsight Library and Learning Centre, 519 Stockport Road, M12 4NE

In Manchester the Festival presents urban artists M-One and Monk on Tour who will spray the outside of The Container Project with a mural inspired by the theme of 'Unity.'

Journeys Festival International invites schools, colleges and artists to watch and respond creatively to the work, inspired by talking directly with the artist and the JFI team. For more information contact nuria@artreach.biz

HOME // AAMIR

Mon 09 – Fri 13 October

Open daily – please see website for more details

The Container Project, Longsight Library and Learning Centre, 519 Stockport Road, M12 4NE

Step into the container and be immersed into the story of Aamir, a brave and tenacious young man whose recent life has been a continual fight for survival in the constant face of aggression and rejection. The 360 film challenges many opinions people hold about refugees forced to escape their original homeland by putting the viewer in the shoes of this displaced soul.

Check it out at the JOURNEYS Weekender pg 14 – 15.

The film is a collaboration between the National Theatre, Surround Vision, and Room One.

Rekrei

Mon 09 – Fri 13 October

Open daily – please see website for specific times
The Container Project, Longsight Library and Learning Centre, 519 Stockport Road, M12 4NE

Rekrei makes cultural artefacts in virtual reality using crowd-sourced imagery. Created in response to the destruction of Mosul Cultural Museum by Daesh (ISIS), Rekrei is at the forefront of virtual reality technology. Explore the museum in a virtual world and witness the digital preservation of cultural heritage.

Can't make it? Rekrei will also be part of Orbit Festival (pg. 12 – 13) and Manchester Museum Takeover (pg.08 – 09).

LOOK UP PRESENTS
MARK TITCHNER AND UNITED FOR CHANGE

02 – 15 October
Manchester city centre, various locations

Journeys Festival International Manchester proudly presents a collaborative arts project between British Turner prize nominee Mark Titchner and United for Change, a refugee and asylum seeker led advocacy group.

Over the last three months, Mark has worked closely with refugee and asylum seeker artists at creative workshops, facilitated by Pathway Arts. Together they have created artworks that contain personal messages of the refugee experience. How do these messages differ to what you normally hear? Or normally see?

Visually striking and text based, these art works give a voice and visibility to this community, presented in large scale artworks across the city.

JOURNEYS FESTIVAL INTERNATIONAL TAKEOVER MANCHESTER MUSEUM

Sat 07 October // 11 am – 4pm

Manchester Museum, Oxford Rd, Manchester M13 9PL

Journeys Festival International takes over the inspiring spaces at Manchester Museum to celebrate the artistic talents of the local and international refugee and asylum seeker community through eclectic entertainment including performance, dance, storytelling, music and more.

Flying Carpets

Performance Times: 11.30am // 1pm // 3pm

Start: Main Foyer (Approx. 40 minutes running time)

Flying Carpets will immerse and lead audiences on a journey into the hidden stories behind some of the museum's unique collections. Prepare to be transported across centuries, civilisations and continents to see Manchester Museum's collections in a whole new light through music, dance and storytelling.

From a Saturday night out in a Congolese village, to the ramblings of Ishtar, the Mesopotamian Goddess of love, beauty, war and political power; explore historical links to Manchester's refugee communities. Flying Carpets is a family-friendly performance created and performed by refugee artists. Make your own object for the Flying Carpets journey at workshops 11 am – 4pm.

Created by Community Arts North West with Abas ElJanabi, Amani Creatives, Arian Sadr, Fereshteh Mozaffari and Mahboobeh Rajabi. Directed by Cheryl Martin. In collaboration with JFI, Manchester Museum and Rethink Rebuild Society.

salt.

Fri 6 at 7pm & Sat 7 October 9pm
Theatre 2 £12.50 / £10.50

A journey to the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean. Selina Thompson's solo show is about grief, ancestry, home, forgetting and colonialism. It's about being part of a diaspora. In February, two artists boarded a cargo ship, and retraced one of the routes of the Transatlantic Slave Triangle. Their memories, their questions and their grief took them along the bottom of the Atlantic and through the figurative realm of an imaginary past.

"One that deserves the attention it demands"

– The Reviews Hub

Recommended for ages 14+

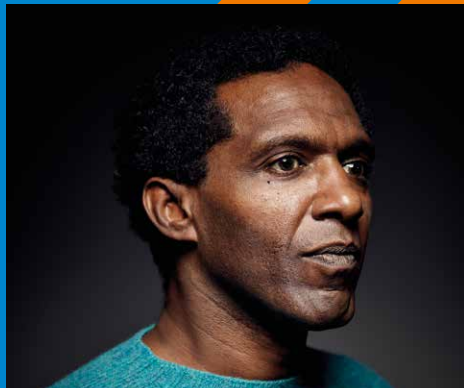

By Selina Thompson. Commissioned by Theatre Bristol, Yorkshire Festival and MAYK. Supported by Arts Council England and 200 kind and generous individuals who donated towards Selina's voyage across the Atlantic.

06 OCTOBER

Breakfast Elsewhere at Manchester Food and Drink Festival

Fri 06 October // 1pm and 3pm

MFDF Event Space, Albert Square, M2 4JW

What does belonging mean when you are set adrift from home, craving the taste of a faraway home and the culinary comfort it brings? Would you crave your mum's Sunday dinner, tatah's maté or injera from the local bakery?

BREAKFAST ELSEWHERE is a participatory gastro-performance that tries to answer this from the perspective of a cook who has come from several homes: Palestine, Saudi Arabia and Syria. The piece employs an audio track that is fed in-ear to an audience volunteer, who speaks out a story and recipe for an intimate gathering of six other participants. The group is tasked to collaboratively create a traditional breakfast dish called tese'yeh.
